Dear Member and Friend of NCDVD:

What an exciting year this has been and will continue to be: three of four of our NCDVD Hispanic Workshops, World Youth Day in Poland, and our annual NCDVD Convention! On behalf of Region I and the Executive Board, I am pleased to announce that our

53rd Annual NCDVD Convention

will be held in Boston, Massachusetts from September 30 – October 7, 2016
at the Renaissance Boston Waterfront.

Cardinal Seán Patrick O'Malley has been most gracious to welcome us into his diocese along with the other bishops of Region I. We are privileged to have His Excellency Charles J. Chaput, Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, and His Eminence Gérald C. Lacroix, Cardinal of the Archdiocese of Quebec as our keynote speakers.

NCDVD prides itself on offering a slate of workshop opportunities of the highest quality, allowing the participant to take back and incorporate into their respective dioceses some of the concepts and programs that they have learned while attending the convention.

I believe the presence and remarks of our bishops, keynotes, and presenters will be of particular importance not only to vocation personnel but to all those who work with young people in their formation and discernment processes.

Come explore the beauty and richness of Boston! We are especially excited to share with you the communities, churches and saints that have helped to shape the area's foundation from its very beginnings. The Renaissance Boston Waterfront is opportunely situated at the heart of downtown Boston! From there you will have the opportunity to visit some of the local landmarks as well as the many restaurants, shops and all that the city has to offer.

To register for the Convention, please go to www.ncdvd.org. The members of Region I look forward to seeing you in September for the 53rd Annual Convention, Mercy – the Heart of the Priesthood.

Thank you, and please pray for vocations,

Rose
