You are invited to attend a workshop to foster a culture of Hispanic vocations in your diocese.

We encourage everyone who works with the Hispanic community to attend:
BISHOPS, VOCATION DIRECTORS, YOUTH & COLLEGE CAMPUS MINISTERS, DIRECTORS OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, DIOCESAN LEADERSHIP

"Come, follow me" are the words spoken by Jesus to his disciples in the Gospel. As a vocation director or someone promoting vocations, you know how important this calling and invitation are to the people you serve. The National Conference of Diocesan Vocation Directors is offering a workshop that will offer tools to reach out to Hispanic candidates within your diocese and within their communities so they can hear God's call. The challenge for the future is real, and we know that part of the answer is how we engage second generation Hispanics to respond YES to their calling.

The workshop will include nationally recognized experts in the field of Hispanic Ministry including: Bishop Daniel Flores, Chairman of the USCCB committee on Cultural Diversity in the Church; Bishop John Noonan, USCCB committee for Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations; Archbishop Thomas Wenski, Chairman of the USCCB committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development; Dr. Hoffzman Ospino, Director of Graduate Programs in Hispanic Ministry at Boston College; Mr. Alejandro Aguilera-Titus, USCCB Assistant Director for Cultural Diversity in the Church; and NCDVD vocation directors who have a wealth of experience working with Hispanic candidates.

The workshop will be held in four different locations and will cost $25 for commuters and $100 for overnight accommodations. For more information and to register for the workshop please visit www.ncdvd.org and click the events button.

We strongly encourage all members of NCDVD to attend, and hope that you will join us for this important discussion.
