

Letting Jesus Do the Heavy Lifting

Semester Review

What is the most prominent way I encountered Christ this semester?

How did I stay with that encounter; how was I docile to receiving more?

In what way(s) did I resist or pull away from a deepening of that encounter?

Where did I experience Jesus doing the heavy lifting? What part of my missionary experience was clear, simple, and easy?

What things in my life help me to allow Jesus to continue to do the heavy lifting?

What things took me out of that?

Where in my missionary experience did I experience difficulty, stress, being overwhelmed, tiredness, lack of desire or initiative, lack of expectation, frustration, or annoyance?

What fueled that? Have I brought it to God? How have I prayed with that experience?

What do I want to have happen? Have I asked for that explicitly and persistently?

Where is Jesus inviting me to live in the next semester? What is His plan? What do I want Him to accomplish in me and through me and for me?
